COOKIE POLICY

This website (www.fod.ie) ("our Site" or "the Site") uses cookies to distinguish you from other users of our Site. This helps us to provide you with a good experience when you browse our Site and also allows us to improve our Site.

A cookie is a small file of letters and numbers that we store on your browser or the hard drive of your computer or internet-enabled device if you agree. Cookies contain information that is transferred to your computer's hard drive or internet-enabled device.

We use the following cookies:

- Strictly necessary cookies. These are cookies that are required for the operation of our Site. These necessary cookies enable core functionality, such as security, network management and accessibility.

- Analytical or performance cookies. These allow us to recognise and count the number of visitors and to see how visitors move around our Site when they are using it. This helps us to improve the way our Site works, for example, by ensuring that users are finding what they are looking for easily.

- Functionality cookies. These are used to recognise you when you return to our Site. This enables us to personalise our content for you, greet you by name and remember your preferences (for example, your choice of language or region).

Analytical, performance and functional cookies are optional cookies. While they help us improve our Site and enhance your experience of it, we will not set optional cookies unless you enable them.

You may withdraw your consent to optional cookies at any time, and manage your cookie preferences, by clicking on the cookie icon which you will find in the left-bottom corner of our home page.

You can find more information about the individual cookies we use and the purposes for which we use them in the table below:
